

DIVING

She's back! Aimee Sundberg is returning as head diving coach this year. Aimee dove for Mt. Lookout while growing up and continued diving through high school. Since leaving Mt. Lookout five years ago, Aimee has been coaching McNicholas High School's diving team where she sent several divers to compete at state. She is very excited to be coming back to Mt. Lookout Swim Club and training our talented divers.

Peter Teneyck will be back for his third year as the assistant coach. Peter also dove for Mt. Lookout while growing up. He is a competitive gymnast and brings that energy to his coaching. He too is looking forward to working with all the divers and making 2011 a very exciting year.
